

INSO Circular 12

27 July 2024

Greetings from the Philippine Nuclear Research Institute (PNRI) and Steering Committee of the First International Nuclear Science Olympiad (1st INSO).

We would like to encourage the student participants to wear attire that will represent their respective countries during the Opening Ceremonies on 1 August 2024, 10:00AM at the SMX Convention Center, Clark, Pampanga.

Also, as part of the 1st INSO activities, all participants will each receive a kit that includes a shirt with their size provided during registration.

We would like to enjoy everyone to wear the shirt during their excursions:

- For students during the Socio-cultural tour on 5 August 2024 (Monday)
- For Country Team Leaders, Observers, IAEA staff, and Experts during the Las Casas de Filipinas de Acuzar Tour on 2 August 2024 (Friday)

Should you have other queries, your office may coordinate with the 1st INSO Local Organizing Committee, through
